Will Minister Thompson's Son Get a Per-centage on the Claim Against Mayti? In September, 1885, accounts were pub-Nahed in THE SUN and other newspapers of the long and illegal imprisonment in Hayti of Charles Van Bokkelen, an American citizen. Van Bokkelen had lived in Port au Prince for several years, doing business as a merchant. In 1882 he was deeply in debt both to Americans and Haytians. He had taken a consider-able part in the politics of Hayti, and had bitterly opposed President Solomon, who came into power in 1883. He was fearful that his political enemies might make him trouble, on count of his debts, but he was assured by the American Government that under existing treaties no American could be imprisoned for

But in 1883 he was imprisoned for debt, as he alleged, at the instance of President Solomon, and kept imprisoned until 1885, when our Government demanded his release. While in sail he was treated with cruelty, and his health

Government demanded his release. While in isli he was treated with cruelty, and his health was destroyed.

He came to his country in August, 1885, and lived for a few months with his father, W. K. Van Bokkelen, at 504 Clinton avenue, Brooklyn. Then he went back to Haytl, and died there on Nov. 1, 1885, from the sickness which fastened upon him in prison. Before his return to Haytl our State Department presented a claim of $120,000 against the Haytlan Government in behalf of Mr. Van Bokkelen, as damages for his false imprisonment. This claim has not yet been settled.

On March 26, 1885, the Rev. Dr. L. Van Bokkelen, pastor of Trinity Church, Buffalo, Mr. Charles Van Bokkelen's uncle, received a letter from a physician in Port au Prince, who attended Charles in his illness, stating that twenty-four hours before his death Charles had made a will, giving to the infant son of John E. W. Thompson, the United States Minister to Haytl, 15 percent, of Van Bokkelen's $120,000 claim. The letter also stated that Charles, who had been a Protestant, was, just before his death, baptized as a Roman Catholic, and that Minister Thompson acted as godfather at the baptiam. The physician said that people were commenting very severely upon the matter in Port au Prince, and that he deemed it his duty to inform Mr. Van Bokkelen's $120,000 claim, The physician said that people were commenting very severely upon the matter in Port au Prince, and that he deemed it his duty to inform Mr. Van Bokkelen's American relatives of the facts in the case. A letter of inquiry was sont to Minister Thompson, and he answered that he would detail the circumstances of Charles's death, but he has not yet done so.

stances of Charles's death, but he has not yet done so.

Mr. W. R. Van Bokkelen. Charles's father. told a Sun reporter yesterday that he did not care to comment on Minister Thompson's action.

"But it doesn't trouble me, however," said Mr. Van Bokkelen. "Before my son went to Hayti for the last time he made a complete assignment to persons in this country of all moneys due him from the Haytian Government as damages for his false imprisoment. The assignment was absolute and in the nature of a deed of trust. I don't care to say to whom the assignment was made or for what purpose. But, of course, this prevents any after disposition of the claim in Hayti, whether by will or otherwise."

PINGSTER IN THE PARKS.

Thousands of Germans, Big and Little, on the Hills Back of Hoboken.

The joys of the Pingster season began yesterday, and thousands of Germans in this city the beer parks back of Hoboken to see the young summer, smell the grass growing rank after the showers, and feel the soft damp earth under their city feet. The Mainzer Carnival Verein of this city climbed the Bergen Hills, and after turning its back, and the backs of some hundreds of its wives, sweethearts, and friends from the smoking view of all New York friends from the smoking view of all New York and the previous night's fire in Williamsburgh, drank in the sight of miles of meadows, streams, woeds, and mountains, one beyond the other fading away in the blue. Incidentally the Verein and its party also drank in much beer and considerable music at Floral Park, which they made the ground for their plenic.

The Hudson County Park had been leased for the day by the Moltke Club, and a grim and grizzled veteran at the gate let in everybody who was willing to pay a dollar for all the beer he could drink, with music, dancing, and the sight of pretty girls thrown in. It was all right for those who had the dollar, but unfortunate wanderers from the great, dry city with just the price of three beers all around in their pocket were more than embarrassed when they met such a welcome after the journey of miles to the park. It was a couple of miles to the park, it was a couple of miles to the nearest park with free admission and dry nearly all of the way. Inside the park several hundred of the Moltke Club men and their wives and small children beyond number filled themselves with music, dancing, merriment, and beer.

DEVILS AFTER JACOB SHARP.

Mother Cowles Offers in Red Ink to Save him and the People from Woe. A postal card written in red ink was received yesterday at the Tombs prison, and now ornaments Warden Walsh's little iron safe. It is addressed:

Asking Women to be Detectives.

A note signed by Edwin P. Ide. President of the Brooklyn Temperance Union, was sent last week to all the ministers in that city, and was read from many all the ministers in that city, and was read from many pulpits yesterday. The note quotes the law which makes it a miademeanor for a saloon keeper to admit any child actually or apparently under the age of 16 to his saloon, and says it is openly violated in all parts of Brooklyn. The note adds: The note adds:

Mistress and Cook Arrested Together.

Mrs. Mary Lee of 36 West Twenty-fourth street, and her cook. Mary Gregg, were prisoners at Jef. street, and her cook. Mary Gregg, were prisoners at Jef-ferson Market yesterday morning charged with disor-derly conduct. Mrs. Lee said that she kept a boarding house, and that her rule was to have the gas turned off in the basement at 11 F. M. The cook failed to conform to the rule an saturday night, so she went down stairs to find out why the gas was still burning. The cook ran out of the house across the street, and she crossed over to bring her back. She was arguing with the cook when the cook saids the street of the standard drove her out of the house, and there to have and tried to drag her back. Justice Ford discharged both women.

Robbed by his Guides.

Frank M. Robinson, a farmer of Greenville, N. J., lost bimself in Hudson street at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. He asked two men the way to the Desbrosses screet Ferry, and they volunteered to show him. They steered him into the hallway of 305 Hudson street, Pobbed him of $5. and stole his cost, vest collar, and a comb, but three away his shoes because three were hales in them. Policeman Broderick arrested James McClann in Clarkson street. McCann had on Bohinson's cost, and the stolen collar and comb were in his pocket. According to the collar and comb were in his pocket. Rectain said he was a blacksmith, and lived at 7 W sah. McClann said he was a blacksmith, and lived at 7 W sah. had him for trial.

ENDED HIS HEADACHES. Florist Robert C. Owens Sends a Bullet Into His Tertured Brain.

Robert C. Owens, 30 years of age, committed suicide yesterday in his father's home, 454 Second avenue, by shooting himself through the right temple. He was a florist, and for eleven years had been employed by Jacob G. Bebus of 958 Brondway. He had been married for about six years, and had lately been living with his wife at 338 East Twenty-fifth street. He had no children.

For a long time he had been suffering at intorvals from paroxysms of pain in his head, probably of neuralgic origin. Yeaterday after dinner he went to his father's suffering with one of these attacks. His mother was visiting her sister, who lives on the top flat of the house adjoining, and had passed through the skylight and over the roof. Shortly after Owens had entered the room his father went down stairs for a moment, leaving him sitting in a chair holding his head. Very soon two shots were heard. Mr. Owens hastened us stairs as his wife, who had also heard the shots, was coming through the scuttle. They found their son lying on the floor dead, with a bullet hole through his forchead. Another bullet had entered the ceiling. Owens had doubtless yielded to a sudden impulse to end by death the terrible pain in his head, an impulse suggested by seeing on the bureau the loaded revolver which his father, who is a night watchman, always kept at hand. torvals from paroxysms of pain in his head.

WAITING FOR THE BIRD TO SING John Hart and a Connry Encamp on the City Hull Steps. John Hart, who was stopping at the Stevens House, was in City Hall Park on Saturday evening with a bird cage, in which was a bird, a bird's bathing cup, and a package of canary seed. He set the eage upon the steps of the City Hall, and was studying it, when a fellow guest of the Stevens House, Thomas Blanch, passed him by.

"He'll sing to-morrow, sure. I'll wait for him. Oh, he'll sing, surely," said Hart.

Blanch saw that there was something the matter with Hart, and spoke to a policeman about him. At the Tombs yesterday Judge Duffy, instead of committing Hart, that his sanity might be inquired into, had him locked up for seven days. But the Tombs was no place for Hart, because it took too many persons to look after him. Dr. Magee had him sent to Bellevue Hospital.

Hart would, not part with his bird and cage. City Hall, and was studying it, when a fellow Hart would not part with his bird and cage. He had the driver of the ambulance hang it up on a hook, while he sat opposite and waited for the bird to sing.

TROUBLE OVER A HOSPITAL The Superloress of St. Elizabeth's Asks to Mother Mary Frances, Superioress of St.

Mother Mary Frances, Superioress of St. Elizabeth's Hospital, at 225-229 West Thirty first street, has filed a petition for the dissolution of the corporation which manages the hospital. She avers that she is the sole surviving trustee. The application was made before Judge Ingraham of the Supreme Court. The court granted an order that whosoever was interested should come forward and show cause why the application should not be granted. The congregation of the third order of St. Francis owns the property. Edward Stephens of 6 Heckman street is her altorney. She application of the strend order of St. Francis owns the property. Edward Stephens of 6 Heckman street is her altorney. She applied to the chart of the society does not wish to have the organization dissolved, denies that petitioner is the sole surviving trustee, and declares that she is incapacitated by age from performing her duties. Ac.

Yesterday afternoon a meeting of members of the society was held in the school house next to the Church of the lidy innocents, on West Thirty-seventh street. Thomas J. Barry, attorney for the members presented a form of petition to have the order of the court vacated. Filty-seven signatures were obtained to the decument. The members of the society are mostly servently first, and the money which society discussed the present est kind of work on their part. The society was organized May 23, 1870.

A young man, whose clothes were well spat and found him staggering down Sixth avenue at 4 A. M. "My name is Edward Dickson," the young man said.
"I live at 132 West Thirty-fourth street, and I am a cierk in tyrus W. Field's office. If you'll let me go, I'll never be caught this way again.
Justice Ford discharged him, and he left the court room. Freity soon he came back, and said that his gold watch and considerable money had been stolen from him. He wasted the thief arrested.

Constitutional Catarrh.

The sense of smell, of tasts, of sight, of hearing, the buman voice, the mind-one or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it disributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored ecause but little understood, by most physicians, imoctently assailed by quacks and charlatand, those suffer ing from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treat-ment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADI-CAL GURR has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, seezing, snuffing, and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste, and hearing, and neutralising the constitu-tional tendency of the disease toward the lungs, lives and kidneys.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOL-VENT, and IMPROVED INHALER. Price, $1. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston
